EGYPTIAN ANECDOTE. - The katsheff related the Evans Henry B following almost incredible anecdote :- Several of the Edwards Wm suite, who were present, were, indeed, ready to attest Emry Henry the truth of it, but, whether true or false, it is one Ethone Lydia which might very properly be inserted in the next Eagle Creek Miss edition of Munchausen's book of marvels :- "It is not long since," began the Katsheff, "that a man Feyd David from Berbar settled here, and was well known to all Fry Miss Rebecca of us. CROCODILES OF THE NILE .- It is singular that, in Holmes Wm certain localities, these animals are much more to be Hanums Jno W dreaded than in others, and even then, not always in Heime D proportion to their larger or smaller numbers. At Hume A C Assouan, for instance, they have never yet been seen Houston Sami to attack a man, whereas, at Wadi Halfa, the greatest Heaton Eliprecaution must be taken to avoid them. Near Don- Jennison Jao gola, again, they are more harmle-s, though more Jones James numerous. It is affirmed that if they have a choice Jenkins A W between a black man and a white man, they invariably Jeninger Ehzabeth prefer the latter.
